Inspector Daly Leads Men to Attack of Two Places - Attempt to Burn Racing

Charts Makes Trouble Raids Made in District Visited by the Mayor. Inspector Daly, who is in command of the Second inspection district, which Mayor Gaynor visited the other day led his plain clothes men on a raid on the alleged gambling houses at 136 Bowery and 37 City Hall place yesterday. Magistrate Barlow sitting in the Tombs police court, issued warrants for both raids.

It was late in the afternoon when Daly and his men drew up quietly in front of 139 Bowers. They were all in plain clothes. On the third floor of the build-clothes. On the third floor of the building they encountered a heavy door of double thickness, which finally yielded to the constant poundings of crowbars. Inside were Detectives Cooper, Cash and Shevlin, who had been on the job for some time getting evidence. As soon as they heard the noise they drew their revolvers and told the 150 customers of the place to keep still. There was no resistance. The police picked up a lot of tacing charts and a couple of telephones and put them all into a patrol wagon. The alleged proprietor, Joseph Bennett of 138 Bowery, Samuel Water-man of 187 Division street, Isaac Berger of 286 East Twellth street and six other men were arrested.

As soon as the inspector finished that to be hurried over to 37 City Hall place. e visit of the police was quite unex-cted, for the front door was not barred and more than seventy-five men in the first room simely quit without a word. There was another room, however, that furnished a bit of trouble. About thirty furnished a bit of trouble. About thirty men, who were not seen by the cops, grabbed a bundle of racing charts and crammed them into a galvanized ironican. Somebody poured kerosene oil into the can and a lighted match was dropped in. The flame scared a few, who yelled and tried to run. It looked as though a good many of the men would get away, but inspector Daly gave orders to hold everybody and everybody was beld. hold everybody and everybody

Ambrose Swanzev of 25 James slip was arrested as the alleged proprietor of the place. Mee Binn of 187 Madison street and Fred Burns of 26 James slep were taken as common gamblers along with half a dozen others. The police captain William H. Hodgins, who was retired about two years ago by Commissioner Bingham on the ground of the raids Inspector Paly said the phaces for a long time and had the whole toing carefully nightness out. Police Captain William H. Hodgins, who was retired about two years ago by Commissioner Bingham on the ground of physical disability, is to be restored to the force. Since his enforced retirement Capt. Hodgins has been endeavoring to get back in the department and the Court The prisoners will probably be retried. The Mayor has talked with Capt.
